All about action, victory and success. Back in the mid-90's the futuristic action genre was in full bloom, and GTA had already created a name for itself. The PSone rushed into battle for the victory. We needed a feature film to play before our eyes and the Battleback was born. Inspired by the sci-fi movies of the early 2000's, the Battleback is back to bring you the best and most realistic graphics. You'll feel like a hero!

I am using a custom theme, and for some reason the site I am developing is using jQuery instead of jQuery Mobile. I have tried changing the theme to use jquery mobile, and in the header of my tag I have written: But of course that doesn't work because jQuery isn't considered to be a valid value of the href property. I have also tried adding jquery.mobile-1.0a3.min.js to my page, but that has the same issue as above. A: You do not need to put your custom CSS and javascript files in the same directory as

After having created a legendary Legend of Evil RPG game in 1980s, this was my first RPG game which I made with RPG Maker. It was published online many times and it was called BB Dojo RPG Maker game. It is a hidden item RPG game for single player. In this game, you have to complete each task one by one while search for the "hidden item" which will give you special power. But you can never see it until you've done 100% of each task. I'm sorry if this game looks boring because it's a difficult game. Read the details of this game on RPG Maker Central if you're curious. FAQ Q: What is a "hidden item"? A: "Hidden item" is the special power which you get from doing certain task. For example, you need to deliver a certain product in order to get a strong power, so you can get this strong power by delivering 100% of the products. Q: Why am I having difficulties in this game? A
